Financial Irregularities Reported from the Philippines

Former Treasurer of Rial Province Tried to Commit Suicide When Arrested--Several Cases Reported at War Department.

Washington, April 25—Reports received this morning at the war department from Manila indicate that a number of financial irregularities, if not actual embezzlements, have occurred in the island, and that the authorities are taking measures to improve the methods of handling public moneys.

Among the cases cited is that of Bartlett Sinclair, former treasurer of Rial province, now under arrest on charges preferred by the auditing department. It is alleged that through his negligence or by his connivance $20,000 is missing. Whether Sinclair profited to any degree is not stated, but from the fact that Deputy Fogarty is also under arrest, it is inferred here that Sinclair's subordinates participated in the looting.

Directly upon his arrest Sinclair attempted suicide by swallowing the contents of a vial of poison. His life, however, was saved by immediate medical attention.

A second case is that of J. B. Wilson, former disbursing officer of the bureau of coast guard and transportation. He escaped from the islands but was captured at Vancouver, B. C., where detectives practically kidnapped him and took him back to Manila by force.

He threatens to implicate others, and the department fears that his may be only the first in a long list of cases. James F. Beahan was once disbursing officer of the Manila board of health, but his accounts looked peculiar, and he was convicted of defalcation. Pending appeal he jumped his bond and fled to Shanghai. There he was re-arrested and deported by consul General Goodnow.

The reports also show that the title of Captain Harry B. Chamberlain, charged with smuggling on the transport Seward of which he was quartermaster, is likely to drag a number of big officers of the army into the scandal. It is asserted that many of the seized contraband articles were purchased by him in Hong Kong, upon the orders of his senior officers and for their use. Although this line of defense may incline the court in his favor, conviction, it is said, will mean at least dismissal from the service.

VANDERBILT WEDDING

Took Place at 9 O'clock Today at St. Mark's Church London--The Arrangements Were Made With Greatest Secrecy.

London, April 25—W. K. Vanderbilt was married to Mrs. Rutherford at 9 o'clock this morning in St. Mark's church on North Audley street. Preparations for the wedding had been carried on with great secrecy. The first inkling that the great American railroad financier was about to be married for the second time was obtained last week. Mrs. Rutherford, the bride, is the widow of Lewis Rutherford, Jr., whom she married in June, 1890, and who died in Switzerland, in January, 1901. At the time of her marriage to him she was Mrs. Samuel S. Sands. Mr. Sands was killed in an accident at the Meadowbrook Hunt club near New York in 1888. Mrs. Rutherford is the second daughter of Oliver Harriser and a sister of Mrs. Stephen K. Olin, Mrs. William R. Travers, and Mrs. Henry White, wife of the secretary of the American embassy at London. Besides the bride and groom only four others attended the wedding. They were Henry White, secretary of the American embassy, who gave the bride away; Winfield Scott Hoyt, who was best man and the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough. The bride was attired in a plain gray travelling dress. She wore no flowers or jewels and carried only a small prayer book. The marriage was an absolutely secret one. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt left the church by the back door. It is reported that the door of the church was closed during the ceremony in order to avoid the admission of anybody. If so this makes the marriage illegal, according to English law, which compels the admission of the public to any church wedding. Nobody at the church will discuss the matter.

POWERS PREPARE

To Issue a Joint Protest Against Russian Demands Regarding Sovereignty of Manchuria --Japan Is Aroused.

London, April 25—There is in contemplation a forcible joint protest on the part of Great Britain, the United States and Japan against the Russian demands in the matter of the sovereignty of Manchuria.

Satow, British minister to China has confirmed the synopsis of the note addressed to China by M. Platonov, Russian charge d'affaires at Peking. Further official advice regarding the intentions of the Chinese and explanation from St. Petersburg are awaited anxiously.

The foreign office says that if China correctly represents Russia's claims, these claims constitute an absolute breach of all the undertakings given in connection with Manchuria, and utterly abrogate the principles of the open door.

It is pointed out that Russia's explanation may throw a different light on her demands, although in official circles here there is a frank expression of the belief that Russia has no intention of evacuating Manchuria.

Washington, April 25—Minister Conger has cabled from Peking a synopsis of the demands made upon China by Russia. This account agrees exactly with the full and accurate press report of Russia's last coup.

The last Russian soldier should have quit Manchuria on the 8th of this month according to the treaty. But a plausible explanation for a temporary retention of the remaining Russian troops was offered by Russia in the claim that the country was still disturbed and vigorous military methods were necessary.

While the diplomats are not disposed to comment on them, it is plain that at least the United States, Great Britain and Japan will join in a firm note to the Chinese government, insisting that China do not agree to the conditions which Russia seeks to impose.

Tokyo, April 25—Russia's demand that China practically cede to it sovereignty of Manchuria has roused all Japan.

DISPUTE

Over Guardianship of Millionaire Moses F. Chase

Was Suddenly Shifted to Cincinnati Today--The Young Man Is Now In Charge of His Father in Indiana.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 25—The scene of action in the controversy over the guardianship of Moses Fowler Chase, the Lafayette, Ind. millionaire, was suddenly shifted today to Cincinnati by an application of Mrs. Chas. H. Duhme of Clifton, Chase's aunt, before Probate Judge Carl L. Nippert, to be appointed guardian. This move was carefully planned out some days ago by the attorneys for the Duhmes. The guardianship application was sprung at the last moment possible as a complete surprise to the attorneys for Frederick Chase, father of the young man, whose application to be appointed guardian is set for hearing Monday at Lafayette. The Chase attorneys claim the Cincinnati courts have no jurisdiction in the case declaring that Moses Fowler Chase is a resident of Indiana. Mr. and Mrs. Duhme were in court early today. The guardianship application was immediately filed, personal property being estimated at $100,000. No estimate was placed on his real estate but its rentals were reported at $18,000 a year. The hearing was held in private in the judge's consultation room. Cincinnati newspaper men who were at Lafayette, Ind., when Chase arrived two weeks ago, being the only witnesses called by the Duhmes. Their testimony was introduced to prove the young man's insanity and the fact that he is under duress at Lafayette and cannot be produced in court in Cincinnati because his father has him in charge in Indiana.

The men met on the road while driving and a wild race ensued, in which Blue was attempting to escape Livingstone, who is a much stronger man. Seeing that Livingstone meant to assault him, Blue drew his revolver and fired three times, the last two shots taking effect, one in the leg and the other in the right breast, passing through the lung. Savage declares that under the statutes of Ohio there is no community of property and contends that his wife has no legal claim upon his estate. He therefore asks to be awarded the considerable real and personal estate he now possesses.

THE MAY MEETING

HAVING BECOME AN UNNECESSARY PROCEEDING OF THE LICKING DEMOCRACY, Suggestion is Made That the County Central Committee Names the Day and Issue Call for Holding the Primary Election.

For years it has been the custom of the Democracy of Licking county to hold what has been called the May Meeting, the principal object of which is to fix the time and manner of holding the primary elections for the nomination of candidates for county officers.

But the manner has long been so well settled that there has been nothing for the May Meeting to do but to fix the time. And even as to time the matter has been generally settled in the minds of the Democracy of the county in advance of the May Meeting. The first Saturday of June has been so invariably fixed upon for a number of years as the time for holding the Democratic primaries, that it has practically become the party's unwritten law.

These customs being so well established for years, many Democrats of the city and county have arrived at the conclusion that the May Meeting has come to be an unnecessary and useless proceeding.

For this reason this question is frequently asked by many Democrats who have the party's best interests at heart: Why would it not be better for the Democratic County Central Committee of Licking county to simplify the proceeding of carrying out the established manner of holding the primary elections by fixing the time for the same and naming the supervisors to conduct them?

This is the plan adopted by the Central Committees of every other Democratic county in Ohio, where primary elections are the mode of making nominations.

As to the other business that has been transacted at the May Meeting, the naming of delegates to the State Convention, passing resolutions, etc., that can be done at the assemblage of Democrats on the day that the supervisors of the primaries meet to count the vote and declare the result. This is always the Monday following the Saturday when the primary elections are held, and it is an occasion on which every township and precinct in the county is represented.

For this reason this day is considered by all Democrats in all the other Democratic counties of the State as the most convenient and propitious occasion which the party can adopt for the appointment of State delegates, passing resolutions, and transacting such other business as the party's interests require.

The Advocate presents these facts and conditions for the careful consideration of the party.

ation of the Democratic County Central Committee at its called meeting to be held on Saturday, May 9. There will be some further discussion of the subject before the meeting of the committee, but on this occasion the Advocate merely suggests that due consideration be given the proposition for the committee to simplify the proceedings by directly naming the day for holding the primary elections and issuing the call for the holding of the same.

CAN'T KEEP IT UP.

Can't Deceive Newark People Very Long—They Learn Quickly.

It is sometimes an easy matter to fool the public, but you can't keep it up very long. They are sure to find you out, and every time a man is fooled another skeptic is made. We are naturally skeptical when reading a published statement given by some stranger residing in a far-away place, but the circumstances are entirely different when home endorsement is presented. The testimony of local citizens renders deceit impossible. It is so easy for you to investigate. Read this case:

Mrs. N. W. Jarvis, No. 105 North Fifth street, says: "When I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Crayton's drug store I had been sick for some time. In fact I could not do anything, I felt so poorly. I had a severe pain in my back and was terribly weak. I had been taking treatment first one and then another, but I felt no better. My attention was drawn to a reading notice in our paper about Doan's Kidney Pills. Bad backs like mine had been cured, could mine be also? I decided to try them. They did for me what other medicines failed to do. They gently aided the kidneys and the pain in the back over these organs left me."

He will recover.

Harb is wild with fear that he will be executed should he be sent back to Mexico. He has become almost a raving man since he was ordered sent to Chihuahua for trial.

Richardson and Mason who were the leaders in the scheme are still in jail pending advice from the Mexican government. It is now asserted that Richardson, Mason and Harb have all together killed at least 20 men in the last ten years.

TWIN BOSSES

Causing Bitter Protests from Many Republicans

Widespread Dissatisfaction at the Naming of the State Ticket By Hanna and Cox Before the Convention is Held--Gillett's Stock Rises.

Columbus, O., April 25—The exhibition of brutal bossism recently made before the full Republican audience of Ohio by Messrs. Hanna and Cox is bearing fruit not entirely agreeable to those patriots. Very likely they do not yet realize its bitterness but there are indications that they will fully appreciate it before the state campaign is long under way. A protest of enormous proportions against the arbitrary dictations of Cox and Hanna is going up from the Republican rank and file every day. It finds an echo in the Republican press and is voiced by leaders of the party who ordinarily are willing to go as far as anybody in support of Hanna's political scheme. These leaders say that the cut and dried program outlined by the twin bosses for the next state convention is entirely too stiff, even for their loyalty to withstand. The idea that one or two meetings between Hanna and Cox can settle an entire state ticket, the United States Senatorship and the state delegation to the next Republican national convention, is one in which the rank and file of the party take no pride, while its leaders are afraid of it. The latter say that the "old man" is riding a willing horse to death. They doubt that he can lead it on a successful home stretch. Notwithstanding the apparent common consent with which Colonel Herrick's nomination has been received weeks in advance of the convention, there is still a prospect that this assemblage of Republican wisdom will not be characterized by as great harmony as an abject surrender to Hanna and Cox might imply. If the program goes through without a hitch it will mean a very large independent Republican protest against the kind of bossism that gave it birth. If there is a hitch it will involve a serious weakening of the Hanna machine. In either event, therefore, the probabilities of united Republican action this year are very remote.

It is understood on the highest authority that Mr. Hanna himself is somewhat aware of the feeling now spreading in his party and that he is in a measure prepared to "hedge." He is willing to sacrifice Guilbert, his and Cox's candidate for reelection as auditor of state, in order to save Herrick as the head of the ticket. There are indications that Hanna and Cox will be obliged to do this. During his recent visit to Columbus for the purpose of posing as the friend of organized labor before the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers, Mr. Hanna was visited at his hotel by a number

Gallery of Detectives.

The proposed gallery of detectives and stool pigeons will be an elaborate affair, got up in pretty much the same manner as the rogues' gallery which is in every police station. The photographs are cabinet size, each numbered, and on the back will be a complete description of the "cop." The barroom he is usually to be found in, his political sponsor, the sum he can be bought for and such like matters. In each gambling house the gallery will be close to the front door, so that the lookout, if he thinks he recognizes a caller as one of the law officers, can turn to it for identification.

Nothing Like Experience.

"One truth learned by actual experience does more good than ten experiences one hears about." Tell a man that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will cure cholera morbus and he will most likely try it before the end of the day. Let him have a severe attack of that disease, feel that he is about to die, use this remedy, and learn from his own experience how quickly it gives relief, and he will remember it all his life. For sale by all druggists.

Twelve thousand people were attracted to Glasgow last year for using ob-of Republican leaders who impressed upon him the fact that his agreement with Cox to run the entire party for the next two years, without regard to the wishes of the great majority of voters, was far from being agreeable to them. It did not take Hanna long to grasp the situation and it is said that he then offered Guilbert as a sacrifice. He was willing, he said, that his friends throughout the state should drop Guilbert and support Col. M. M. Gillett of Newark for auditor. As for himself he said that he was pledged to vote for Guilbert but he would not ask any favors for him from others—not even from the Cuyahoga county delegation. When this fact became known Gillett's stock went to par, where it now stands. The senator was the more willing to offer such a compromise as this because it was made plain to him that if Guilbert were renominated his associations with the railroads and notorious connection with the state house lobby would be used against him with telling effect, to say nothing of the general prejudice against a third term. It is said that Hanna promptly saw the point and agreed to be good to Gillett provided the latter's friends would not put any obstacles in Herrick's way.

This is entirely characteristic of Senator Hanna's political methods, both ancient and modern. It should not be forgotten that Judge Douglass of Chillicothe has already charged the senator with having violated faith with him in promising to keep his hands off of the gubernatorial situation and then coming out openly for Herrick, to say nothing of his alliance with Cox. Douglass entered the race for the nomination on the explicit understanding that it was to be an open field and a fair fight. He and his friends are naturally chagrined at the course pursued by Hanna. Senator Harding, another late gubernatorial candidate, makes the same complaint in a different way. In his paper, the Marion Star, he says editorially that the understanding was that Hanna would not favor one candidate as against another. On this hypothesis he, like Douglass, became a candidate. The friends of both now charge that the junior senator broke faith with each. It would be no surprise now, and indeed, is in the very nature of things, to find Hanna letting go of the Guilbert boom. While he cannot afford to openly espouse the cause of Col. Gillett he has seen enough of the handwriting on the wall to drop Guilbert like a hot cake. It is not even probable that Guilbert can hold the Cuyahoga delegation.

Hetty's Comment.

New York, April 25—Mrs. Hetty Green, the richest woman in the world, had a case in Judge Marian's court in Brooklyn yesterday. During the course of the proceedings, Mrs. Green learned that it was divorce day and that 26 undivided divorce cases were to be tried.
"Divorce day, they call it?" she asked. "Well, what can you expect? These women never learned to keep house. They get married and their sole ambition is to wear fine clothes, bleach their hair, wear gay ribbons and fine laces. Home is the last place they want to think of. They go parading round with their vulgar style and think they are beauties."
"Poor things, they never get sense. The next thing the husbands go parading about, and then trouble begins."
"Then they find themselves in court. That's it. Oh, I've lived around hotels and I know what these women are. The young folks of today have not inherited common sense."

Try it on the baby too—it will cry for more.

Hon. Thos. P. Tipton, Bloomington, Ill., writes: "When a Monticello child was crying a law suit, Mr. Holt, a friend of mine, told me of Syrup Pepsin and advised me to try it. I did so and used a bottle and have used several bottles since. It has given me great relief, and I would not be without a bottle at hand, as I think it a very valuable preparation for the stomach, and have no objections to your using my name as an endorsement of this, what I regard a great remedy for stomach trouble. I had tried many doctors and about every remedy that was prescribed by friends, and must say that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has done me more good than all I have ever tried."

OPPOSITION

To the Candidacy of Judge Burke: Is Led by J. A. Flory, and C. A. Thatcher.

Columbus, April 25—Twelve or 15 attorneys from various sections of the state met in the Chittenden hotel yesterday to organize opposition to the candidacy of Judge Burke for a re-nomination to the supreme bench. The meeting was called several days ago by C. A. Thatcher of Toledo. J. A. Flory of Newark and Mr. Thatcher are leaders in the movement. It was decided to carry the fight against the renomination of Judge Burke into every county in the state. The meeting was held behind closed doors and every member of the conference refused to discuss it. Only two of them registered at the hotel.

Mr. Flory who was shown the foregoing dispatch from Columbus, said to the Advocate Saturday that the object of the meeting was not to oppose Judge Burke's candidacy or that of any other man, but to get the lawyers of Ohio to take greater interest in nominations for the judiciary and to take steps to secure a better attendance at the State bar association.

FOUND GAS

And the Field is Said to be the Richest in Ohio—Boom for Two Buckeye Towns.

McConnelsville, Ohio, April 25—The people of McConnelsville and Munda have suddenly awakened to wild enthusiasm over the discovery of a great flow of gas. The gas pressure is said to be beyond comparison with other wells in the state. The organization of a company was completed with $20,000 capital to start a gas factory. Experts from Lancaster, Ohio, are the moving spirits.

S. R. Dresser, the millionaire Congressman of Bradford, Pa., has just contracted for the construction of a factory building for the manufacture of his oil well supply patents. Parties have been here looking up a site for a brick plant, and a salt factory is in contemplation. The great gas supply will be used in all these industries.

Happy Homes
One of the essentials of the happy homes of to-day is a fund of information as to right living and the best methods of promoting health and happiness. With proper knowledge, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and are of not less value than the using of the most wholesome foods and the selecting of the best medicinal agents when needed. With the well-informed, medicinal agents are used only when nature needs assistance and while the importance of cleansing the system effectually, when bilious or constipated, has long been known, yet until within recent years it was necessary to resort to oils, salts, extracts of roots, barks and other cathartics which were found to be objectionable and to call for constantly increased quantities.
Then physicians having learned that the most excellent laxative and carminative principles were to be found in certain plants, principally in the leaves, the California Fig Syrup Co. discovered a method of obtaining such principles in their purest condition and of presenting them with pleasant and refreshing liquids in the form most acceptable to the system and the remedy became known as—Syrup of Figs—as figs were used, with the plants, in making it, because of their agreeable taste.
This excellent remedy is now rapidly coming into universal use as the best of family laxatives, because it is simple and wholesome and cleanses and sweetens the system effectually without disturbing the natural functions and without unpleasant after effects and its use may be discontinued when it is no longer required.
All who would enjoy good health and its blessings should remember that it is the one remedy which physicians and parents well-informed approve and recommend and use and which they and their little ones alike enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects.
Syrup of Figs is for sale by all reliable druggists, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, in original packages only, having the name of the remedy—Syrup of Figs—and the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.

"For 20 years until within the last 15 months I have been greatly troubled with indigestion and have used a great many remedies without obtaining any permanent relief. About the 15th of June, 1909, I commenced using Nau's Dysplasia Cure, and am pleased to say that I consider myself entirely cured of all stomach troubles. I have delayed expressing to you my opinion of your valuable remedy until such a time has elapsed as to convince me of my entire recovery. At the time I began to use the Nau's Dysplasia Cure, my health was in a critical condition and my friends had almost given up hopes of my recovery, and I am satisfied in my opinion that had it not been for Nau's Dysplasia Cure, I could not be alive to write this letter." Board of Public Safety--Tax Commission and Health Board Named.

The very first official act of Mayor-elect, A. J. Crilly, shows the high minded, earnest desire of that gentleman to give to Newark a just and capable administration, raised above the plane of partisan advantage and characterized by honesty, intelligence and competency.

Mayor Crilly was in no hurry to announce his appointments to the positions given him by the new code to fill, but exercised a discriminating judgment which will meet with the hearty approval of every person in the city regardless of political predilections or personal preference.

These appointments were announced Saturday morning as follows:

Board of Public Safety
Frank A. Bolton, Theodore M. Ball.

Tax Commission.
William H. Davis, William L. Prou, Thomas M. Jones, Harry J. Hoover.

Board of Health,
Dr. J. P. H. Stedem, Dr. J. G. Bower, Dr. D. M. Smith, Dr. R. E. McCullough, Dr. C. A. Hatch.

Every man named is too well known to need any words of introduction to the public. They are men of character, of good standing in the community in a business, moral and professional way, and in every case, the appointee is well qualified to perform the duties devolving upon him.

The appointments speak for themselves, and there can be absolutely no criticism of any of them. This first official act is an earnest of Mayor Crilly's administration, that it will be one of the best in the history of Newark.

POULTRY

SHOW WILL BE SUCCESSFUL IN DECEMBER

The Newark Fanciers' Association Secures Services of Charles McClave to Judge Exhibit.

The Newark Fanciers' Association announces that it has secured the services of Charles McClave, of New London, Ohio, to judge its show to be held here December 3 to 12, 1903. Mr. McClave needs no introduction to poultrymen as he is one of the most competent and popular pet stock judges and breeders in the United States today, and exhibitors at the coming show will be certain of a score card of value, coming as it will from the hands of such an eminent judge. Mr. McClave is president of the American Poultry Association which is national in its character, and also treasurer of the Ohio Poultry Association, as well as one of the most extensive breeders of thoroughbred poultry in the country.

By the employment of Mr. McClave as judge, the selection of an appropriate date, the splendid location and commodious accommodations of Newark, the Association, supported as it is by a large number of enthusiastic and wide awake business men, is certain of a successful show.

QUIT WORK

BECAUSE THEIR BOSS WAS AN AMERICAN

Work on Electric Road Between Black Hand and Clay Lick is at a Standstill Now

During the past few days the contractors, who are doing the grading on the Newark and Zanesville electric line, between Black Hand and Clay Lick, have been having considerable trouble with the Austrian laboring men. The company recently placed an American boss over the Austrians, which action was resented by the foreigners, who wanted to be bossed by one of their own number, and about 75 of them quit work. Their places have not yet been filled, and the work between Black Hand and Clay Lick is at a standstill. The work between Newark and Clay Lick, however, which is being done by Americans, still continues, rapid progress being made.

CONCERT

OF WELSH MUSIC GIVEN NEXT
THURSDAY NIGHT

At Taylor Hall Under the Auspices of the Pan-Racial Institute—Object of Concert.

A concert of Welsh music will be given at Taylor Hall, Y. M. C. A., on Thursday evening, April 30, under the auspices of Pan-Racial Institute, Chapter No. 1, the local branch of the Welsh department of the Pan-Racial Institute.

The program will consist of solos, part songs and choruses; remarks by Prof. Yearley on the characteristics of folk-music, and a brief address by Prof. C. L. Williams of Deinson University, President of the Chapter.

In order that the motive in giving this concert may be understood, a word must be said in regard to the nature and scope of the Pan-Racial Institute and what it seeks to accomplish.

In the first place, the Institute has headquarters in Philadelphia and is developing under the presiding of Prof. Paul Haupt of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore. It is designed by its plan of organization to embrace all races or nationalities of mankind, each race, according to the plan, being represented in the institution by its own individual race department. Finally, its objects are: To increase and diffuse knowledge concerning the life, literature, art, music customs and traditions of the various races of mankind; and by these and other means, to deepen the growing sense of a common humanity. All objects illustrative of race life and genius, as for example, books, pictures, musical instruments, costumes, ornaments, implements of war and industry, it seeks to collect, classify and render available for study and instruction.

The Institute thus assumes largely the functions of an educational enterprise, and the concert to be given on the 30th is designed primarily, however well rendered, to be a study in the cultural-history of a race, rather than an artistic performance. Attention, it is expected, will be centered on the singers, and comparisons should be made between Welsh folk music, on the one hand and the folk music of other races, on the other, rather than between this style and that of rendition.

Wales is a land of song. The emotions, sentiments and aspirations of the race—the love of nature, of civil liberty, of religious freedom—are largely crystallized in her melodies, many of which have been handed down from generation to generation by the lips of the people from remote antiquity. Some of these will form a part of the concert program.

North Carolina and Mississippi have State schools of the study of textile fabrics.

WEEK'S CLUB NEWS

At the Review club, which held its last meeting on last Saturday at the home of Mrs. J. B. Jones, early reminiscences of our beautiful city were given, and "A Prophetic Dream" written and recited by Mrs. Oscar Stevens was a fitting finale to Newark's winter clubdom. Almost without exception, the members of the clubs are women burdened with many cares, and the weekly or fortnightly club refreshes both mind and body, and the home is made the happier in consequence of the mother's mental and social renewing.

A PROPHETIC DREAM.

I had a dream! Alas! 'twas but a dream
I saw the town of Newark quite transformed.

Where once a stagnant pool or so
And rotting bridge or lock
Did mark an ancient waterway
Along whose banks thick-strewn
Discarded cans for sardines, salmon
And the tomato succulent, there were,
Where in the hours 'twixt sunset
And the dawn, mellifluous bullfrogs
And their progeny, did croak their wrongs

Unto a suffering world
Making night hideous.

And the sly snake and lizard
On the rocks did crawl and sun themselves

In the bright day, and the rank weeds grew thick,
And scum and slime, human and vegetable,

Did gather, grow and thrive near these dark pools.

I looked, and Lo! a change, so vast,
So glorious, scarce could my wondering eyes

Unto my mind convey the truth
That this could be.

So, then thought I, my next reincarnation
Has arrived, and I behold the afterwards

Of what I've seen before.
For in this waterway whose banks were lined

With flowing gardens, terraced walks
And palaces of pleasure fare,
I saw gay barges float;

Great horseboats, too, bright with their flags,
And music floated down from boat

And bank and shore, and all was beauty and delight.

A beckoning hand urged me
On board a craft whose motive power
Was from that source whence comes
The forked lightning, and we glided swift

For many miles, 'twixt pastures green
And fields of waving grain
And wooded shores, until we came unto a lake.

Whose glistening waters spread o'er
many a mile,
Along whose shores were peopled
beaches

Where fair children played,
And cottages and halls, with velvet lawns

And flowering shrubs;
While in small bays and coves
The lily and the lotus vied each with the other,

Thus to add new beauties to the scene.
Small pleasure yachts and launches
Urged by this great mysterious force invisible

Sped o'er the peaceful waters of the lake.

Or anchored in the shade under the bank

Rocked idly in the gentle breeze.
While from the woods, the fields,
The waters, all around, there breathed
A sense of things accomplished;
Ideals realized.

For that the state mighty to do, had done.

And this which once had been an eyesore
And a blot upon the earth.

Had, by their wise advisements and decree

Been transformed into the thing of beauty which I now beheld.

And, too, I heard men say that fish Could now be lured from out these watery depths

With hook and line, and eke the tempting worm;

And saw, indeed with these, mine two eyes.

That this was true.
For, miracle of miracles!
The laws were now enforced.

And none might snare or trap the fawn tribes

Or offer them for sale upon the public mart

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

And not the forfeit pay.
So joy like to a mantle, spread itself
O'er all the peaceful scene,
And I was glad once more to be alive,
Although I knew that aëons must have passed

Ere all this change had come about,
For that the race as I remembered it
In those dark ages when last
I viewed this scene,

Was ever slow to grasp the opportunity
To beautify the world around them,
Choosing rather, to amass a store of coin

To leave to coming generations,
Or, to spend their time and money
In small games and trivial pastimes.

Their souls seemed dulled to the vast worth
Of beautiful surroundings

And their uplifting influence on the life.

My senses satisfied and charmed,
Backward we took our way
And stopped, and landed at a pier
Where steps of carved stone led to the waters' edge

Dazed with these sights I bled me forth
Upon the ground to tread.

And Lo! 'twas it the self same city
That I saw? And these its streets?
So clean and white the sun upon them
Dazzled quite the eyes.

The building too, tall and stately columned
Of stone and marble wrought
And architecture exquisite.

Upon a corner of a street
Where erst a barber shop had lured
The unshorn denizens of the past
To part with hirsute honors,

I beheld a mighty archway ope
Into a building grand and beautiful
Upon whose doorway carved
I read such words as thrilled me with delight

To know that this could be.
A woman's club house this

With every luxury that woman's mind
Could contrive or the artisan create.
Through spacious halls with mosaic
floors

And soft draped walls
One passed to libraries vast and satisfying
Presided o'er by women of high looks
The priestesses of learning.

Whose countenances seemed to glow
With wisdom, and a patience sweet
And all enduring—

For never tired woman, brain-wracked
And distraught, over a paper for her club hand

Came here, but she was given a helping hand

And lifted from the slough of despond
By these fair sister souls
And she passed out into the world
Inspired and strengthened

For her work, as one would never dream.

And reading rooms there were
And rooms for quiet thought

And meditation, rest for the mind and body, both were found within these charmed walls.

Refreshment too, for all who so desired,
Where dainty meals were served
By hands as fair as those
That plucked the strings of harp or viol

In some far nook
The viands all were bought, prepared
And served, by women trained,
Unto this work as to an occupation
Of high worth as such indeed it is.

And no reproach attached unto the woman who with skillful hand
Prepared the meal, more than to her
Whose mind evolved the plan
Of this great club-house.

For it was, I learned, in all its parts
Designed by woman's mind alone,
And much too, of its execution
Was by them achieved—

Here too, were councils held,
To which were questions of much importance
To the town and state presented.
Were many changes wrought
For the advancement of the place and people,

Which else had never been.
Free reading rooms there were
For women of all classes
And instruction given in all the arts
Whereby a woman earns an honest living.

An education for the mind, the soul
the body. All were offered here
By woman unto woman.

And too, I saw with pleased surprise
How not a face I met, but it was beautiful,
Doing the outward sign of lives unselfish

And the cultivation of the best
In all things in each one—
And was this heaven, I asked.

Ah no, except that in each one of us
There lies the elements of which
Or heaven or hell can be.

This but the outcome was of what
Can only be, when naught but good is sought.

And which could surely be if that were done.

So said my guide, and I was glad to know
That memory proved to me
That in that far-off day
When things were black with the reflection of men's selfishness,
That there had been the germ
The microbe of this mighty change
Which now I saw,
And that, a tiny worker amid those microbes

I had been.

That now I saw what then I hoped,
That each high thought was sure a force
Which, set in motion never ceased to act

And I was satisfied.

Her Life Might Have Been Saved

Two-thirds of the inmates of our hospitals are women. They are in most cases either for treatment or for an operation, made necessary by advanced stages of female troubles which have resulted in ovaritis, a tumor, or displacement of the womb.

"AN OPERATION NECESSARY."

How these words after the examination strike terror to a woman's soul, and with what regrets she hears them, when she considers that the operation has become necessary through her own neglect. Female derangements cannot cure themselves, and neglecting the warnings of nature only means putting it off until there is no cure. The woman who lets her trouble make headway pays the penalty of a dangerous operation and a lifetime of impaired usefulness at the best, and the operation often proves fatal when her life might have been saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration; or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, and the blues, they should remember that there is one tried and never-failing remedy; Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound at once removes such troubles.

READ THE FOLLOWING LETTERS.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I cannot tell you how much good you have done me and how thankful I am to you for it. For five years I have not been free from pain for a day. I have had backaches, headaches, and those awful dragging sensations with leucorrhœa, and when menstruation appeared I was in such a condition I could hardly sit up. I doctored all the time, but nothing helped me, and I was told that an operation was necessary.

"Two months ago a friend suggested that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No one knows what it has done for me and how thankful I am for it. It brought me the first well days I have had for five years. It did for me what doctors could not do, and I want every suffering woman to know about it."—LOUISE NACER, 751 E. 166th St., New York City.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to thank you for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I had terrible hemorrhages, being lacerated from the birth of my child. The doctor told me that if I would have an operation I would be well and strong. I submitted to it, but was worse than before; no one knows what I suffered. Finally a friend advised me to try your Vegetable Compound; I did so, and commenced to feel better; I continued its use, and it has done for me what doctors could not do. I am strong and well. If women with any kind of female troubles would only consult you before submitting to an operation they would be spared many hours of pain and suffering. I cannot thank you enough for what you have done for me."—ANNA KIRCHHOFF, 136 E. 100th St., New York City.

How Sick You Are or How Many Physicians Have Failed to Help You.

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will Cure You if a Cure is Possible.

Doctors are not infallible and there are many instances where they have decided a case was hopeless and then the patients astonished everyone by getting well and the cause of their cure was Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. A case in point is that of James Lettuce of Canajoharie, N. Y., who writes:

"Some years ago I was attacked with pains in my back and side that were fearful in the extreme. I could not control my kidneys at all and what came from them was mucous and blood. I was in a terrible state and suffered intensely. A prominent physician of Albany, N. Y., decided that an operation was all that would save me. I dreaded that and commenced to take Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. I felt better almost instantly. When I had taken about two bottles, the flow from the bladder was much clearer, the pain stopped, and I was saved from the surgeon's knife and am now well."

Dr. W. H. Morse, the famous physician of Westfield, N. J., has this to say of this great medicine:

"I have known it to cure chronic inflammation of the kidneys, where the attending physician pronounced the case incurable." No form of kidney, liver, bladder or blood disease, or the distressing sicknesses so common to women, can long withstand the great curative power of this famous specific. Its record of cures has made it famous in medical circles everywhere.

It is for sale by all druggists in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose. Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail. Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y.

THE NEW CODE

How Newark Will Be Affected By the New Law

City Solicitor Smythe Talks to the Advocate About Some of the Principal Provisions of the Measure Which Goes Into Effect May 1.

As the first of May approaches, when the officers who were elected at the spring election begin their duties in which they will be governed by the provisions of the new municipal code passed by the last legislature, in extraordinary session last October, the interest in the new code and its operation in Newark increases. Even to those best informed, it is nothing more definite than a mass of legislative verbiage.

Mr. Phil B. Smythe, Newark's efficient solicitor, who was re-elected this spring, is recognized throughout Ohio as one of the men who most thoroughly understand the new measure for municipal government. He was asked by an Advocate reporter to give some information along certain lines of interest to the public and he gave the following opinions as to the effect on the city of Newark, of the new law.

"The new code divides the city government into departments and offices. The departments are the legislative, administered by the council, department of service, administered by the Board of Public Service, department of Safety, by the Board of Public Safety, and the Executive department, which is divided into offices Mayor, Solicitor and Auditor.

"It is the intention of the code to make each department and office separate and independent one of the other. Each department and office contracts its own debts, and pays its own bills, regardless of any other, and without reference to any other authority, except the auditor who is the book-keeper of every department and all warrants drawn upon the treasury must go through his hands, and it is his duty to see that no account of any department or officer is drawn.

"Here, however, occurs a serious lapse, as no way is provided for any officer, or any person to get money out of the treasury, except by a somewhat forced construction. I submitted my construction to Smith Bennett, special counsel in the attorney general's office, and it met with his approval. I will also submit it at the meeting of City Solicitors, in Columbus, next Tuesday.

"At the beginning of the fiscal year, and every six months thereafter all the corporation's fund will be distributed among the several departments, according to estimates submitted by them. Any surplus at the end of six months, that may exist, is to be put back in the general fund and redistributed.

The duties of the Mayor will be practically the same as they have been, except in one important particular, and that is the power of veto which is given him by the new law.

He may veto any ordinance, but the council by a two-thirds vote may pass any measure over this veto.

The tax commission will consist of four members, appointed this year for one, two, three and four years, respectively, hereafter one to be appointed every year without compensation. The duties of this commission will be to look over the tax levy, and they are empowered to make any reductions and report back with such recommendations as they see fit to the council, which may by a three-fourths vote reject the ordinance without accepting the recommendation.

This commission will also have charge of the sinking fund, to invest it if there be any to invest.

"The Board of Public Service is practically the governing power of the city, outside of the police and fire departments. They are to make all contracts, supervise all work and they may initiate and carry out any expenditure which involves less than $500. Any expenditure of more than $500 must be authorized by the council, and the board then carries it out.

They have charge of all streets, public buildings, cemeteries, light plant, etc. and may make any rules and regulations governing the same which have the same authority as ordinances.

Here is one of the conflicts of the code. Section 28 is a practical re-enactment of the old law and says that the council shall have the care and supervision of all streets, cause same to be repaired etc. Under the head of

Board of Public Service section 110, it says this department shall supervise and repair all streets. The Board will employ all of its own superintendents, workmen, engineers and fix their pay without reference to any one else, and will do the work now done by council committees, civil engineer, superintendent and cemetery trustees.

"The Board of Public Safety with the Mayor, have the management of the police and fire departments. The Board examines all applicants as to fitness and qualifications, and recommends them to the Mayor for appointment. They establish examinations and when notified of any vacancy, furnish the mayor with the names of eligibles from which to appoint a person to fill said vacancy. This board makes all contracts for repairs, has charge of all buildings in use by these departments, and make any rules and regulations it sees fit, which have the same effect as ordinances.

"The Solicitor is the legal advisor of all departments and officers and is the attorney for the city in all litigation. Under the code he is also made police court prosecutor, but this does not apply to Newark which has no regularly established police court. I will however attend the Mayor's court and act as prosecutor in all cases that I consider of sufficient importance.

"The Auditor is the corporation's book keeper and as arranged in Newark will be clerk of the council, board of health, board of public service, board of public safety and the tax commission, besides being auditor. Each fiscal year or oftener if occasion demands he must audit the accounts of any department or officer, and report to the few bureau of inspection of public offices, and uniform system of public accounting, which is a department of the state government.

"The duties of the treasurer are the same as heretofore, except that he handles the school fund, and must deposit public monies in the bank paying the highest rate on daily balances, to be determined by competitive bidding.

"The code is full of contradictions and lapses, but these will probably be remedied and the law, I think will be beneficial in its general effect. I find in talking to men interested in the operation of the code that different ideas are held on the same subject, and to secure a uniform construction I have taken upon myself to call a meeting of the 71 City Solicitors in Ohio, to meet me in Columbus next Tuesday. I have received 58 definite assurances of attendance including those from the solicitors of Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Toledo, and the other large cities. We may effect a permanent organization, but this is not what the meeting is called to do."

SOCIETY EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Chief among the society events of the past week were the several entertainments given for Miss Edith Ickes, the bride of Wednesday evening, the first, on last Saturday, was the luncheon at one o'clock given by Mrs. Fred King at the home of her mother, Mrs. Heisey on East Main street. The house was profusely decorated with flowers, the hall with pink roses, the parlors with American beauties and the color scheme in the dining room was yellow. The flowers were daffodils, and at each place was a candle with a yellow shade. On the place cards was imprinted our national flower, the golden rod, and on the reverse side were written verses which afforded much entertainment. The luncheon was served in eight courses, the ices very appropriately in the form of wedding bells. The guests were Miss Edith Ickes, Miss Ada Ickes, Miss Mary Baldwin, Miss Latimer of Middletown, Ohio, Mrs. J. R. Fitzgibbon, Miss Sellers of Mt. Vernon, Miss Adelaide Richardson of Brooklyn, N. Y. and Miss Helen Loesch of New York.

On Monday afternoon was given the second party in honor of the bride-elect by Miss Mary Baldwin, who entertained with a parcel shower. The first part of the afternoon was devoted to progressive culture. The first prize was won by Mrs. C. W. Miller, and the second by Miss Edith Ickes. Refreshments were served, after which the shower came. Unlike the usual April shower, there was only one victim, and that a very happy one, who was made both richer and happier by the deluge. Those who enjoyed Miss Baldwin's hospitality were Miss Edith Ickes, Miss Ada Ickes, Mrs. Fred King, Miss Lois Upson, Miss Lucy Wood, Miss Louise Speer, Miss Elizabeth Thomas, Mrs. C. W. Miller, Miss Lilian Laumer, Miss Ada Follett, Miss Lucille Harrington, Miss Atta Beecher, Miss Louise Beecher, Miss Richardson of Brooklyn, Miss Sellers of Mt. Vernon and Miss Loesch of New York.

On Tuesday night Mr. George Heisey gave a banquet at the Hotel Warden in honor of Miss Ickes and Mr. Brady. The banquet was served in courses, at small tables, a round one being placed in the center for the bride-elect. The tables were decorated with American beauties, and there was a rose at each place. Place cards were decorated in water colors, with brills for the gentlemen and grooms for the ladies. In addition to the ladies of the bridal party there were present Miss Heisey, Miss Thomas and Miss Latimer, of Middletown; Messrs. Frank Webb, Wm. Burke Brady, Paul Maylone of Chicago, Edward and Burke Kearns of Pittsburg, Wm. McGraw, of Baltimore and Wesley Merrill of Toledo.

After Mr. George Heisey's banquet, also Tuesday night, the groom-elect, Mr. Brady gave a stag party at the Hotel Warden.

Dr. C. P. King entertained the Royal Pedro club at his residence on West Main street on last Tuesday evening. Tables were arranged for about ten couples. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Haight, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Franklin, Dr. and Mrs. George H. Woods, Dr. and Mrs. Rollin Sook, Mr. and Mrs. Baird, Mrs. John H. Franklin, Mrs. Lawhead and Mrs. Cordray. A choice supper was served about 11 o'clock.
